CANDY CORN

While the little ones are nibbling on lollipops and Jolly Ranchers this Halloween, satisfy your own sweet tooth with some decidedly more adult autumnal treats: veré's PUMPD CORN MIX and PURIST CARAMELS (not pictured). And don't expect the usual stick-to-your-teeth effect. Each organic popcorn kernel in the mix has been caramelized, air-popped and topped with dark chocolate, and the accompanying organic pumpkin seeds have been roasted with salt and chipotle chili powder. Be forewarned that the caramels are far too decadent to save for covering apples; the chocolaty cubes come in eight intriguing flavors (think rose and pistachio, lavender, and lemon and poppy seed). $6 per bag of mix; $28 for a 16-piece box of caramels. ## Grocery Get: thinkThin Pink

Not only are these bars delish (in flavors like peanut butter caramel and lemon burst) and incredibly good for you (each bar is rich in protein and essential vitamins and minerals), but 10 cents from each thinkThin Pink bar will be donated to Susan G. Komen for the Cure. $17 for a box of 10. www.thinkproducts.com.
